The HeArt Project

As its mission, the HeArt Project located in Los Angeles, CA, combats the epidemic high school dropout crisis by providing a long-term, sequential arts program offering teenagers a pursuable life path that inspires them to stay in school, evolve as unique individuals and flourish as creative adults.

Through the HeArt Projects' hands-on art programs in partnership with alternative high schools, working artists, cultural institutions and creative professionals, over 600 students annually re-engage with their education and community while developing a positive peer network, increasing their self-confidence and learning creative problem-solving technical skills that contribute to success in work and in life.

Shanti Orange County

Shanti Orange County, long known as the AIDS agency with a caring heart, has been serving the needs of those impacted by a diagnosis of HIV/AIDS since 1987.

This organization seeks to enhance the quality of life for persons living with the life-threatening or chronic illness by providing volunteer-based emotional and practical support. Shanti's direct service and educational programs aims to ease the burdens and improve the well-being of people in difficult life situations such as those living with HIV/AIDS.

Testimonial: "Since my diagnosis, I have used the great services that Shanti provides and I wanted to give back by lending my support both monetary and as a volunteer. It has been very gratifying to be helping Shanti to help others that share my diagnosis and help myself at the same time."
