President's Letter

Dear Friends,

During his lifetime, Dr. Leo Buscaglia, emphasized the value of outreach to individuals in need, believing those helped will give help to others. This was a core value to the founding of the Leo Buscaglia Foundation. Smaller organizations with lean budgets emphasizing volunteerism or mentorship of others were of particular interest. His good fortune continues to help individuals improve their quality of life and life in their communities.

In a time when more non-profit organizations struggle to make ends meet, the Foundation supported 18 organizations awarding grants totaling $78,000. The grants are modest in amount, but often crucial to the organization's work assisting those in need. We are proud to be associated with the organizations funded this past year and are proud to share the list of the 2016 awardees.

On behalf of the board and staff, thank you for your interest and for your contributions to the Foundation. Keeping in mind our good fortune in this season of thanksgiving and joy, we ask that you consider the Leo Buscaglia Foundation in your year-end giving. A gift to the Foundation assures that Leo's good fortune will continue to fund our mission to assist others in need by helping small non-profit organizations.

Best wishes to all as 2016 comes to a close,

Keri S. Botello
