RoomsThatRock4Chemo

RoomsThatRock4Chemo located in San Francisco, CA is a nonprofit organization devoted to creating positive, healing and uplifting spaces that spiritually, emotionally and physically support those dealing with chemotherapy. RoomsThatRock4Chemo transforms unimaginative, often sterile spaces into warm, vibrant and peaceful environments. Their work of love, compassion and creativity brings the comfort of beauty, peace and caring to those suffering.

Founded in 2011, they have been able to complete 72 rooms in 9 facilities, totaling 170 beds/chairs that see 701,120 patient visits per year. They've had 848 visual volunteers contribute to their projects with thousands others behind the scenes. All of these custom designed rooms are completed over one weekend as these rooms are needed during office hours.

Mr. Holland's Opus Foundation

Founded in 1996, Mr. Holland's Opus Foundation keeps music alive in schools by donating musical instruments to under-funded music programs, giving kids the many benefits of music education, helping them to be better students and inspiring creativity and expression through music.

This past year, they were able to donate 322 instruments to 14 Los Angeles County school, serving 644 students. They have helped 87 schools all across the United States.

Mr. Holland's Opus Foundation gives students from low-income families the opportunity to play music in school. By simply giving under served schools the instruments they need, more students are able to play, enjoying the social, behavioral and academic benefits of a quality music education.
