Working Wardrobes for a New Start

Working Wardrobes for a New Start received a grant in support of their Career Success Institute. The Institute provides a broad range of career development services to clients who are eager to enter the workforce. The mission of Working Wardrobes for a New Start is to empower men, women, veterans and young adults overcoming life's challenges to confidently enter the workforce and achieve self-sufficiency. Working Wardrobes received a grant from the Buscaglia Foundation in 2008.

Their guiding philosophy is a belief that people are more powerful than the barriers they face and that all of their clients share the common desire to achieve success. Here is a story of exactly that, a graduate of their Customer Service Training Program who was hired by her "dream employer" contacted Working Wardrobes when she had an opening to offer the same opportunity to another one of their clients. What a great way to help others with an chance to achieve that same success.

The Laurel Foundation

The Laurel Foundation received a grant to help finance their Summer, Teen and Winter Camp Laurel programs and their Mentorship program. The mission of the Laurel Foundation is to provide year round educational and support programs to children, youth and families affected by HIV/AIDS. The Laurel Foundation received a grant from the Buscaglia Foundation in October 2012.

The kids that come through the Laurel Foundation go on to help others by coming back to be volunteer counselors themselves or one child even became a licensed social worker working in the field of HIV/AIDS.
