Jericho Road Pasadena

The mission of Jericho Road Pasadena is to build nonprofit capacity by matching the professional talents of highly qualified volunteers with the needs of community based nonprofit organizations to promote community development, strengthen social services and enrich the lives of volunteers.

In 2015 they extended their match-making services to place board members at local organizations, because knowledgeable and committed leadership is so crucial to non-profit success. The Leadership Connection is comprised of three 3-hour sessions.

Which prepare participants for board duty and also offer substantial individual development. Topics covered by their two experienced trainers are financial and legal oversight, strategic planning, resource development and ambassadorship. The placement of TLC graduates on nonprofit boards supports the health of local non-profits and expands the sense of community spirit and engagement of each participant. Jericho Road also received a grant from the Leo Buscaglia Foundation in 2014.

Plaza de la Raza

For the past 47 years Plaza de la Raza has provided year round arts educations programs and has also served as a community arts center, presenting the finest in Latino culture programming in a variety of disciplines. Plaza's mission is to foster enrichment of all cultures bridging the geographic, social, artistic and cultural boundaries of Los Angeles and beyond.

One of their students Jose was getting deep into gangs in the area. His father brought him to Plaza de la Raza to get away for that life and at first he wasn't interested in anything, but then one day he discovered the piano. By the end of the first ten weeks he was playing Alumbplat in the recital. He earned a full rife to Idyllwild School for the Arts and then a full ride to USC Music. He still teaches with and works with Plaza de la Raza.
