A Sense of Home

A Sense of Home, is a nonprofit organization run by former foster youth that utilizes donated furniture for youth that have aged-out of the foster care system and are now living on their own, often in subsidized housing. They help by providing furniture and other basic necessities required to make the youth's first permanent living space feel like home.

A Sense of Home, received a grant for needed home-making supplies. Items may include bedding, kitchen gadgets and small pieces of furniture. Former foster youth who receive a home creation commit to doing the same for at least one other youth recently released from the system. ASOH transforms the lives of former foster youth at-risk for repeat homelessness by creating their first ever homes utilizing loving-kindness of volunteers.

Team Giving

Team Giving, received a grant for community outreach, project coordination, database management, training, marketing, website maintenance and social media expenses. Team Giving's mission is to inspire, guide and advocate for non-profit organization by matching their needs with businesses, corporations and service clubs to complete volunteer projects. They support systemic change by bridging the gap between non-profits with substantial need for volunteer support and corporations, service clubs and individuals with the time and skills to meet those needs.

Volunteerism empowers people to support causes they care about. Giving of time, talent and effort is hugely consequential and monetary value is one way to measure the impact that Team Giving volunteers make toward improving their communities.
